United Way of Metropolitan Chicago

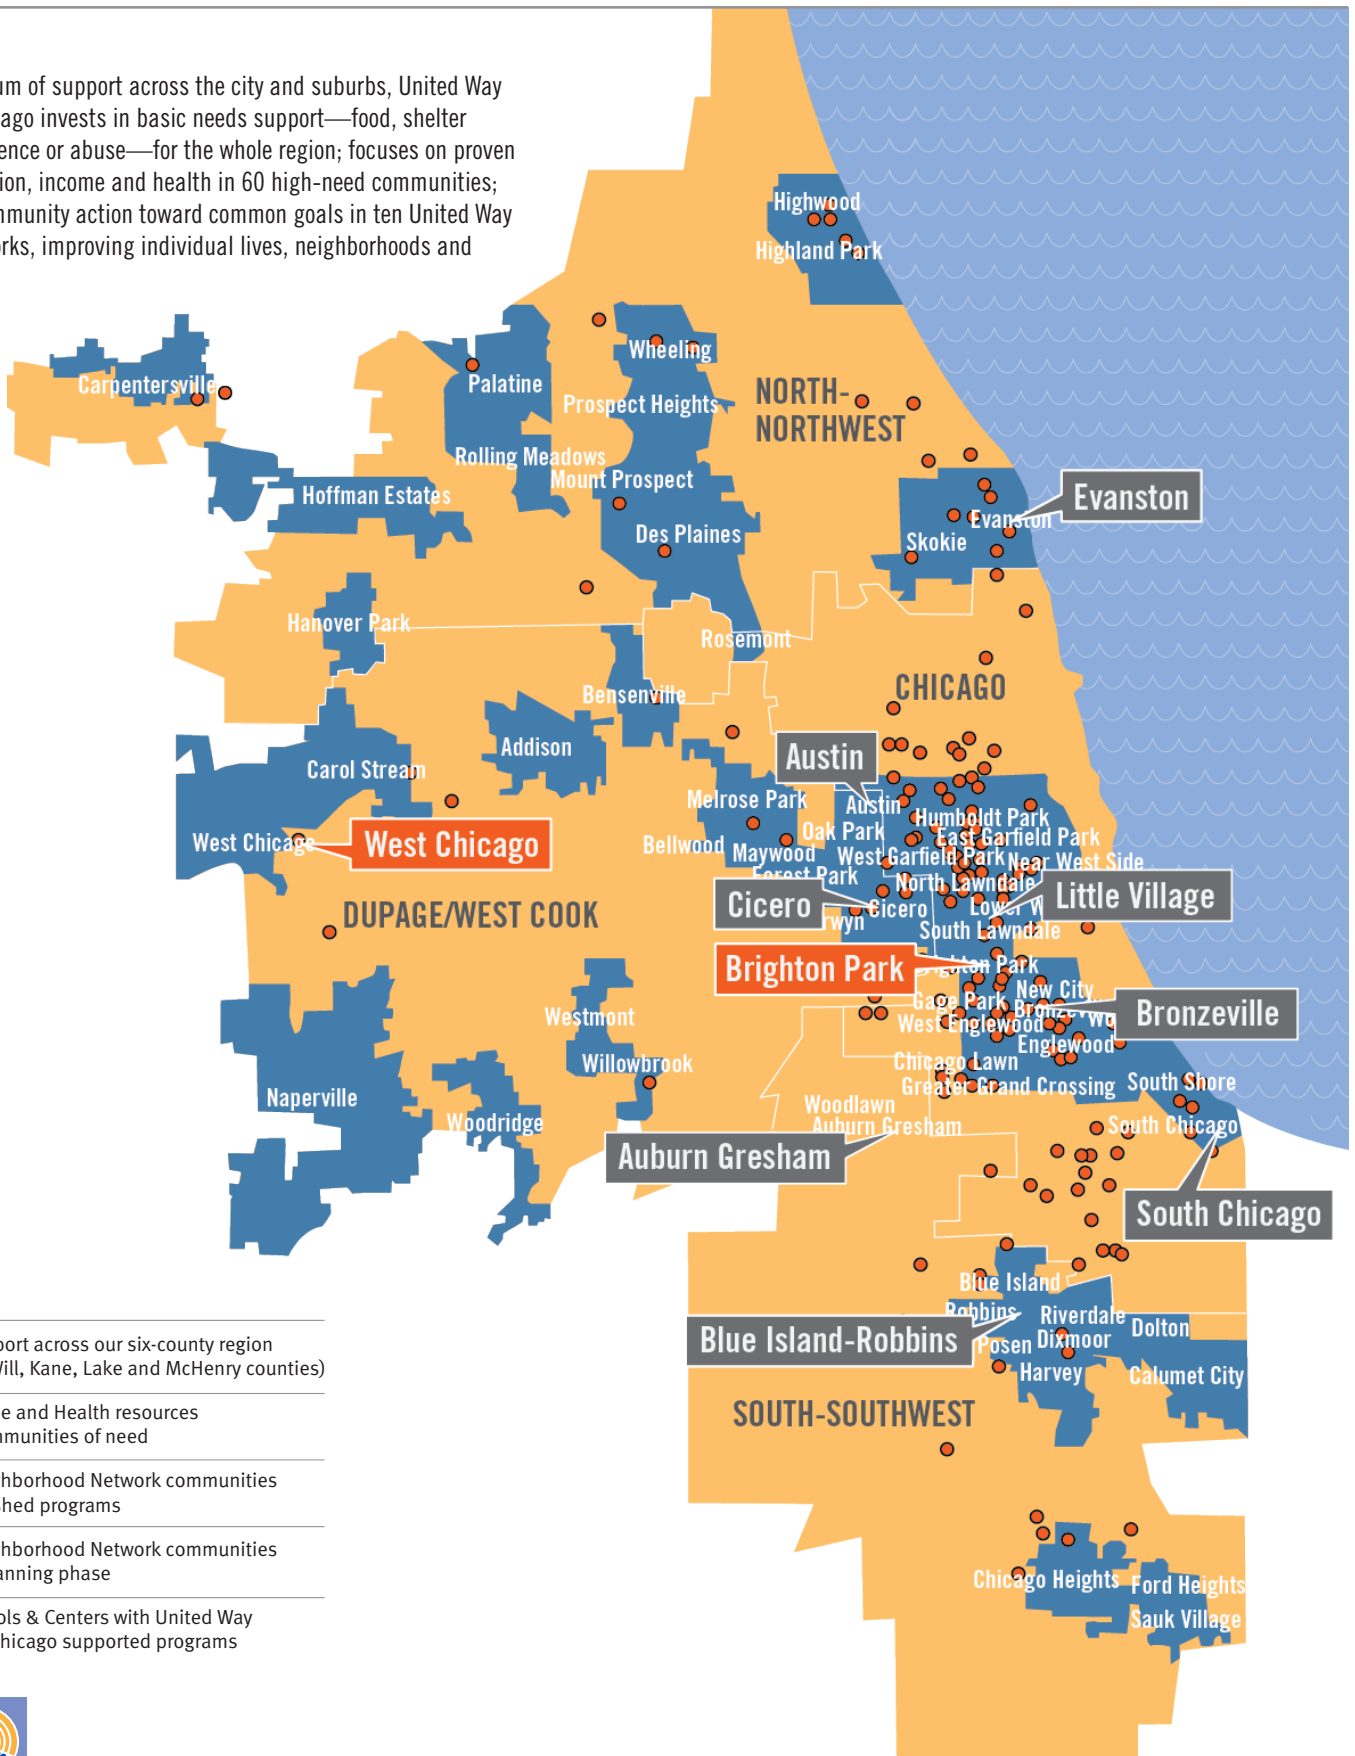

PROVIDING A NETWORK OF SUPPORT IN CHICAGO AND THE SURROUNDING SUBURBS

OUR SERVICE LANDSCAPE

As of July 2015

Providing a continuum of support across the city and suburbs, United Way of Metropolitan Chicago invests in basic needs support—food, shelter and safety from violence or abuse—for the whole region; focuses on proven strategies in education, income and health in 60 high-need communities; and coordinates community action toward common goals in ten United Way Neighborhood Networks, improving individual lives, neighborhoods and our entire region.

KEY:

- Basic Needs support across our six-county region (Cook, DuPage, Will, Kane, Lake and McHenry counties)
- Education, Income and Health resources in 60 partner communities of need
- UNITED WAY Neighborhood Network communities with fully established programs
- UNITED WAY Neighborhood Network communities in partnership planning phase
- Community Schools & Centers with United Way of Metropolitan Chicago supported programs
